Other information regarding the participants in the proxy solicitations and a description of their direct and indirect interests, by security holdings or otherwise, will be included in the joint proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant documents filed with the SEC when they become available.

Additional Information & Forward-Looking Statements

CAUTION ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This communication contains certain forward-looking information about Potlatch and Deltic that is intended to be covered by the safe harbor for “forward-looking statements” provided by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements other than statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by words such as “may,” “hope,” “will,” “should,” “expect,” “plan,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “believe,” “estimate,” “predict,” “potential,” “continue,” “could,” “future” or the negative of those terms or other words of similar meaning. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, statements relating to the terms and closing of the proposed transaction between Potlatch and Deltic, the proposed impact of the merger on Potlatch’s financial results, the estimated distribution of Deltic’s accumulated earnings and profits, and the integration of Deltic’s operations. You should carefully read forward-looking statements, including statements that contain these words, because they discuss the future expectations or state other “forward-looking” information about Potlatch and Deltic. A number of important factors could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those indicated by such forward-looking statements, many of which are beyond the parties’ control, including the parties’ ability to consummate the transaction or satisfy the conditions to the completion of the transaction, including the receipt of stockholder approvals, the receipt of regulatory approvals required for the transaction on the terms expected or on the anticipated schedule; the parties’ ability to meet expectations regarding the timing, completion and accounting and tax treatments of the transaction; the possibility that any of the anticipated benefits of the proposed merger will not be realized or will not be realized within the expected time period; the risk that integration of Deltic’s operations with those of Potlatch will be materially delayed or will be more costly or difficult than expected; the failure of the proposed merger to close for any other reason; the effect of the announcement of the merger on customer relationships and operating results (including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees or customers); dilution caused by Potlatch’s issuance of additional shares of its common stock in connection with the merger; the possibility that the merger may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events; the diversion of management time on transaction related issues; the estimation of Deltic’s accumulated earnings and profits is preliminary and may change with further due diligence; general competitive, economic, political and market conditions and fluctuations, including changes in interest rates, credit availability, adverse weather, cost and availability of materials used to manufacture products, natural gas pricing and volumes produced; changes in the regulatory environment; the cyclical nature of the industry in which the parties operate; and the other factors described in Potlatch’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016 and in its most recent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC, or described in Deltic’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016 and its most recent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC. Potlatch and Deltic assume no obligation to update the information in this communication, except as otherwise required by law. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, all of which speak only as of the date hereof.

Compelling Strategic and Financial Rationale

Merger presents significant strategic and financial opportunities beyond what could be achieved by each company on a standalone basis

Strategic Rationale

- Combined company will have a diversified timberland base of approximately 2 million acres and 1.2 BBF lumber capacity
- Results in an Arkansas footprint of 933,000 timberland acres and sawmill capacity of 630 MMBF
- Expand successful integrated model of timberland ownership and lumber manufacturing
- Remain the timber REIT with the most leverage to lumber prices
- Southern sawlog harvest and sawmill consumption volumes provide a natural hedge against lagging southern sawlog prices
- Increased exposure to the fast-growing Texas housing market

Financial Rationale

- Combined market capitalization over $3 billion and enterprise value over $4 billion⁽¹⁾
- CAD per share accretive in the first year excluding costs to achieve synergies⁽²⁾
- REIT conversion results in significant tax savings on Deltic's timber harvest earnings
- One-time dividend estimated at ~$250 million⁽³⁾ consisting of 80% stock and 20% cash will be distributed to PotlatchDeltic stockholders by the end of 2018 as part of the REIT conversion process
- Strong balance sheet and improving credit metrics
- Dividend increase from $1.50 to $1.60 per Potlatch share

Note: Acreage statistics as of September 30, 2017; BBF represents billion board feet of lumber; MMBF represents million board feet of lumber

(1) Pro forma based on current standalone market capitalization and enterprise value

(2) Assuming full run-rate synergies

(3) Figure represents an estimate; an earnings & profits study to be completed in 2018 will determine actual amount; Distributions of both cash and stock will be treated as a taxable dividend. If certain holding periods are met, the distribution will be taxable to individual stockholders at the 20% "qualified dividend" rate

Complementary Businesses

- 114 year old forest products firm structured as a REIT
- 1.4 million timberland acres diversified across 3 southern states, Idaho, and Minnesota
- 4 sawmills with 750 MMBF capacity and one plywood mill⁽¹⁾
