El Dorado, AR - Deltic Timber Corporation (NYSE-DEL) announced today that William L. Rosoff has resigned from the Board of Directors. Mr. Robert C. Nolan, Chairman, said, "Mr. Rosoff has been a valued director since the inception of the Company and his advice and counsel greatly assisted the Company's formation and acceptance in the public market arena." Mr. Rosoff commented, "It has been a privilege and a pleasure serving with the Deltic Board. Deltic is a great company with outstanding people and a bright future. I leave with the comfort of knowing that it is in the best of hands."

When Murphy Oil Corporation decided in 1996 to spin-off Deltic, Mr. Rosoff was the partner who advised Murphy while working with the Wall Street law firm Davis Polk & Wardwell.
